THE GROUND BREAKING

The ground breaking ceremony for the Riding Arena in Joaquin Miller Park was celebrated in a colorful pageant of horses and horsemen on Saturday afternoon, March 20. The brilliant costumes of mounted units and the gleam of proud horses made a thrilling spectacle against the dark green of the Redwood setting.

That which has been but a dream in the hearts of horsemen the past few years, now has its beginning as reality. What an inspiration it should be to every member of the Metropolitan Horsemen's Association! Here you have concrete evidence of what you can accomplish when you work for something as a group.

With the building of this "home for horsemen", the city of Oakland has recognized the needs of riders in this community, yes, and of their importance. Stick together horsemen in your organization, the M. H. A. Only through unity can you accomplish the things you want as individual horsemen.

And I have heard some of you ask why you should belong to M. H. A.—just what it does for you! Here is just one of the answers, and a mighty big reason for belonging it is, too.

I felt a real thrill of happiness and pride watching the ground breaking ceremonies and feeling that as a member of M.H.A., I had a small part in bringing the Riding Arena into being.

My happiness was marred by the realization that I will not be here to work for the completion of the over-all plan. Time marches on. Mr. Paul has had a promotion that will take us to New York to live as soon as we can sell our home and make other necessary arrangements.

I have told you before that after having lived in four states, I firmly believe that no other city in the country has riding trails to compare to those you enjoy. They are superb in beauty of surroundings, variety in character, and availability (so close to the city).

You should thank God for the beauty of the setting, and your Park and City officials for setting aside such large Park areas that you as riders can enjoy. In the future I hope, that by working together as horsemen, you will be able to thank yourselves and merit the thanks of coming horsemen by not only guarding your heritage against the encroachment entailed by the city's growth, but by working hard as a unit with park and City officials to build more trails so that Oakland will become known all over the country as the "Ideal Home for Horsemen".

I have thoroughly enjoyed my membership in the M. H. A.; I have enjoyed the privilege of acting as a member of your Board of Directors the past two years; and I have especially enjoyed the friendships made with a swell bunch of people through these contacts. I hate to leave. Someone said, "To say goodbye is to die a little". I think I know why. It is because one cannot help leaving a part of one's heart wherever one has lived.

But instead of saying "adios", I'll say, "hasta la vista", and hope I'll be back this way again some day to ride the trails.

Blanche Paul, editor.

A letter of resignation from Mrs. Blanche Paul, as Managing Editor of the TRAIL BLAZER, was accepted with regrets. The resignation was necessitated by a business promotion for Mr. Paul which will take them to New York.

Mr. Myers read a letter from Mr. Mott listing the materials needed for the Riding Arena, and a letter from Mr. Blythe which told of the buildings available for use as our club house, custodian's house and office.

Membership Chairman, Heber James Brown reported 384 adult and 106 junior members. A motion was made and passed that the May issue of the TRAIL BLAZER be the last to be sent to 1947 members.

Business Manager Bill Pray revealed that the TRAIL BLAZER was out of the red. About $75.00 remained in the account after the April issue was paid. Advertising Manager Don Schwimley reported that the April issue carried 100 inches of advertising netting $240.00 in returns. Photographer Charles Logue reported that he had taken pictures of the ground breaking ceremonies which he had turned over to Mrs. Paul for use on the May cover of the magazine.

Art Palmer introduced the committee in charge of the May Trail Ride and Field Day. George Daniels, chairman for the event, introduced Martin Murray as chairman of the ride, and Bev Theobald, chairman for the Field Day events.

Trails Chairman, A. B. Graham advised that minor repairs have been made on trails reported by Miss Cress. Mr. Myers stated that he had also repaired the road block in the same area.

A motion made by Mr. Brown, naming Don Marquis as chairman for the 1948 Horse Show, was unanimously passed. Mr. Marquis reported on the success of the St. Patrick's Dance of which he was chairman.

Chris Hansen told of his plans to get the Juniors together for their first meeting on April 3. Humane Committee Chairman, John Corvi, reported that his committee is working on memberships.

M.H.A. JUNIORS HOLD FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the M.H.A. Juniors was held on Saturday afternoon, April 3rd, at Sequoia Lodge.

Chris Hansen, Junior Chairman, arranged for the meeting, gave a brief talk, and conducted the election for officers. Officers elected were: President, Joey Cosca; Vice-President, Peggy Day; Secretary-Treasurer, Pat Brandes.

A two hour trail ride was planned for April 10. Due to bad weather the ride was called off but luckily Chris Hansen rode to the meeting spot, for 15 Juniors were ready to start their ride. Another ride is planned for 1 p.m. on April 17.

At the meeting, many of the Juniors expressed a desire for a drill team to compete in Junior Shows. Miss Graham has kindly offered her ring for drills or other Junior activities.

Each Junior is urged to present ideas for an emblem for the group and Janet Anderson and George Hundrick have been asked to secure information as to costs for such emblems.

Juniors who attended the first meeting included: Janet Anderson, Karen Anderson, Donald Bjornson, Pat Brandes, Clark Brown, Phoebe Brown, Joey Cosca, Peggy Day, Celia Gray, George Hundrick, Ann Husar, Ann Lacey, Sandra Logue, Linda Lorimer, Gale Meyer, Marion Parson, Vandra Rosendahl, Wilda Rosendahl, Patty Rukavina, Joan Schetter, Sally Schetter, Janet Scott, and Inez Thompson.

Following the meeting, ice cream, cake, punch, and cookies were served the Juniors by Chris Hansen. President Joey Cosca, on behalf of the Junior organization, gave Mr. Hansen a vote of thanks and appreciation for the delicious refreshments, and for his work in making the meeting possible. The Juniors will meet monthly.

RESERVE CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY SANDRA LOGUE

Sandra Logue won the title of Reserve Champion Rider in the series of three horse shows put on by the Barbara Worth Stables in Sacramento the past winter. Her horse, Toy Storm, was also made a Reserve Champion in the Hunter division.

In the last show of the series, March 26, 27, and 28, Sandra was judged the Champion Rider and Toy Storm was made Champion Hunter.

Sandra won first in Equitation competing in a class of 18 riders, and fifth in the Seat and Hands over Jumps class.

The Sportsman, owned by Don Evans and ridden by Sandra Logue, won fifth in the Championship awards.

SUBALTERNS

Subalterns held a Gymkhana and picnic lunch on March 25, in place of the trail ride which was cancelled because of rain.

Results of the show: Road Hack: 1, Vandra Rosendahl riding Big Rock; Pot-luck pairs won by Happy Clements and Linda Lorimer riding Peter Patch and Alex; Equitation, Peggy Day riding Trinity Tim; Jumping, Linda Lorimer riding Klown Kyack. The Eggatation race (riding at walk, trot, and canter while holding an egg in a spoon) was won by Carol De Vilbiss riding Rabbi. Judges were Pat and Dede Brandes of Shongehon; announcer, Miss Cress; director, Mary Lou Hutton.

SHONGEHON

The April meeting of Shongehon was held at the home of Charlette Lochner. Following the meeting, supper was served.

Plans for the Shongehon Junior Horse Show on June 6 were discussed. Members expressed regret that Maria de Bonis and Joyce Gableman had resigned due to pressure of school activities.

Sandra Logue has been missed by her Shongehon mates recently as she has moved to Concord.

Pat Brandes, newly elected M.H.A. Secretary-Treasurer is to be congratulated on her fine showing of Duffle Bag in a jumping exhibition at the horse show held at Centerville.

SUE ALLEN SPILLS

Sue Allen took a spill while jumping her mare, Phantom Filly. The Filly kicked Sue in the head and 'tis rumored that the Filly seems a bit lame since.

INTRODUCING NEW JUNIOR MEMBERS

JEFFREY HARDIN is an eleven-year-old Cressmount rider. He says his favorite horse is Killarney. Jeff, a very enthusiastic M.H.A. Junior, is looking forward to the association's junior activities.

SALLY SCHETTER, one of the youngest Pegasus Patrollers at Cressmount, is but nine-years-old and she wants to take jumping lessons. However, her legs won't reach down far enough, so Sally is patiently riding her favorite horse Noah in drills with the Patrollers. Sally attends the Havens school in Piedmont.

DON SCHUMACHER also rides with Pegasus Patrol at Cressmount. He is a member of the Saturday morning jumping class. Although Don has his own horse at his Dad's summer home at Twain Harte, he says that Adobe at Cressmount is a favorite with him too. Don attends the Havens School in Piedmont.

MARGOT STENZEL is eight-years-old and rides with the Beginners Class at Cressmount on Saturday morning. She says Duffle Bag is her favorite horse.

DEON STENZEL rides with Pegasus Patrol at Cressmount. Her special favorite is Big Rock. Deon is eleven-years-old and enjoys jumping on Sunday mornings. Deon and Margot live in San Leandro.

Dave Nelson, nephew of Elsa and Gus Himmelman, writes from his home in Los Angeles that he misses the lovely Oakland trails. Seems that Dave spends his summer vacation in Oakland with the Himmelmans and his winter months in Los Angeles with his father. Dave plans to ride in the MHA show this year.

Patsy Nuttall, another Shongehon rider, stables her good Thoroughbred, Chocolate Soldier, at Cressmount. Patsy is an accomplished musician and plays both the piano and violin. She is a freshman at the Bret Harte Junior High School.

Marion Parson keeps her horse, Pal, at her private stable. Marion enjoys riding in Redwood Park. She attends the Frick Junior High School.

Carol Pfoffenberger keeps her horse, King, at Toby's near Don and Ann's. Carol attends the Fremont High School, and, upon graduation, plans to major in Animal Husbandry at Davis.

Janet Scott, a member of the Subaltern Group at Cressmount, finds time to ride with Pegasus Patrol, as well as with the Beginners' Jumping Class. She attends the Anna Head School in Berkeley and is active in all sports.

Marilyn Shaw is a member of the Shongehon Drill Team at Cressmount. Marilyn is a sophomore at the Piedmont High School and spends her vacations riding horses on her uncle's ranch in Arizona.

Janet McKenzie rides with the Interme-for the new groups called the Rancho Bodiate Group at Cressmount on Saturday mornings and also finds time to jump with the beginners on Tuesdays. Janet attends the Alameda High School and plays the piano very well.

Cherie Mae Winslow, a thirteen-year-old rider, lives in Los Angeles and spends her vacations in Oakland riding her horse Pepper. Cherie enjoys drawing pictures of horses. Her secret ambition is to become a veterinarian and eventually own a "Retirement Farm" for tired and worn-out horses.

DEDICATION OF THE HORSEMEN'S ARENA

The 20th day of March, 1948, will be remembered by most of us as the day of the ground breaking ceremonies signalling the start of the Horsemen's Arena in Joaquin Miller Park. To some of the older members of the Metropolitan Horsemen's Association it will be remembered as a day of fulfillment—fulfillment of a cherished dream of a locally owned arena for horsemen's activities. I have in mind such men as our past presidents Howard Robinson, Frank Moller, Harold Knudsen, Fred Anderson, Frank Colbourn, Jr., Don Marquis and many other officers and members who have put forth considerable effort in the realization of this plan.

Saturday afternoon, March 20, was a brilliant afternoon. The hills and trees were resplendent with spring color and at the site of our coming horse shows were assembled riding groups as dazzling as Mother Nature herself—the Aahmes Shrine Rangers led by Captain Fred Bemis; the colorful Lari-ettes led by Captain Margaret Rukavina; the Alameda County Sheriff's Posse led by Captain Eddie Carey; and other groups and individuals from private and public stables.

Mr. Joseph C. Tobin, director of Public Relations for the Park Department, conducted the ceremonies and after making a brief talk, he called upon Syd Chown who read a paper dedicating the occasion to the memory of many old timers who played a great part in the progress of riding facilities in Joaquin Miller Park and elsewhere in the East Bay.

Representing our President Ted Dreyer, your Vice-President was called upon by Mr. Tobin to make a few remarks in behalf of the Metropolitan Horsemen's Association.

He was followed by William Penn Mott, Jr., who vividly painted the Park Department's plans for the future. He pictured many good things for the horsemen of this community: an elaborate system of trails which will ultimately allow horsemen to ride from the hill area down to and around Lake Merritt; the completion of the horsemen's Arena and the building of a Horsemen's Club House on an adjoining knoll overlooking the Bay.

I am sure that we were all thrilled by this picture. Mr. Mott reminded the M.H.A. never to relax in its persistent efforts to bring about the final completion of the Horsemen's Arena as well as these other planned facilities.

We must not in expressing our appreciation forget our many friends in the City Hall without whom this project would never have been possible. So we say THANKS to the Board of Park Department Commissioners headed by its President Nat Levy and to the other officials in that Department headed by William Penn Mott, Jr., its Superintendent. Also to our Oakland City Manager, John F. Hassler, goes our gratitude for his support, and to the members of the Oakland City Council.

And so on this occasion, may I take the liberty on behalf of our President Ted Dreyer, and other officers and members of the Metropolitan Horsemen's Association of extending our thanks to all of these very fine gentlemen.

Jim Myers, Vice-President.

LOCATION OF RIDING ARENA

In case any of you do not know the exact location of the new Riding Arena in upper Joaquin Miller Park. Here's how to find it.

In a car, drive up Joaquin Miller Road, turn left on Skyline Boulevard and drive until you reach the little brown fire station on the right side of the road. Turn left very sharply and head into the Park. Take the Park road that angles to the right and you will come to the arena within about one-third of a mile.

If you are riding, take the Sunset Trail which branches off of Skyline Boulevard a couple of blocks north of the intersection with Joaquin Miller Road. Follow this trail to the very end and soon after it turns right, angling away from the Bay view, you will ride into the cleared area of the arena.

In Memory of Mt. Helix

Janice Kenyon's beautiful registered Thoroughbred Mt. Helix has gone to greener pastures. This gallant horse succumbed to an attack of indigestion in his eighteenth year.

He was a horse that many young riders will remember fondly as he taught them to ride. He always seemed to know just how to take care of his rider and jump smoothly for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith gave him to Janice three years ago when she was learning to ride a hunter. Mt. Helix won a number of ribbons for her, and he will long be remembered for his generous heart and kindly disposition.

SECRETARY'S MAIL BAG

Invitations to M. H. A. members this month include one from Sonora. On May 8, a "Days of Gold" Parade will be held. Stalls and feed will be supplied the horses, cash prizes and trophies will be awarded the best entries. A rodeo will be held on the Fairgrounds on Sunday, May 9.

Here are two celebrations you are welcome to attend the following weekend. Auburn will sponsor a parade on Sunday as a part of their three day Centennial Celebration, May 14, 15, 16. Cash prizes and trophies will be awarded the various parade divisions.

M. H. A. members have also been asked to participate in the Jumping Frog Jubilee Parade, May 16 at Angels Camp. But don't forget our own Trails Ride and Field Day the same date.

On June 4, 5, and 6, a Frontier Days Celebration will be held at Tracy. A mammoth parade following a free lunch at 12:30, will be the Sunday feature, plus a Western Play Day event.

For further information on these invitations, contact your Secretary—OL. 2-2536.

The Program Committee consists of: Barbara Chase, Susan Tuttle, Clair Hansen, and Gay Hopkins. Bob Lorimer will donate a Perpetual Trophy which will be displayed in the office. All those interested in further information on the show may call Bob at KELlog 2-7977. Entry blanks are available at the barn.

The "teen agers" riding from the Oakland celebrated the coming of Easter with a Smorgasbord dinner party on March 20.

The regular Sunday Riding Group, which is so ably headed by Hal and Lee Reiter, has two new members, Connie and Stretch Wieckert.

Osa Ruttan is once again riding the trails on the beautiful black Saddlebred gelding, Hal Collins, owned by Eva Young.

Dottie Wemmer, owner of the buckskin pleasure horse, Toni, is vacationing in the southern part of the state.

WITH THE LEONA RIDERS

The Leona Riders are in the saddle and riding again. It would be hard to find a group with more enthusiasm than these horse owners, 42 of whom met at the Brown's Canyon Ranch in March.

At this time nine new members were added to the Leona Riders. They are; Janice Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Vanier, Gary and Cheryl Vanier, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Den Berg, and Lois and Norma O'Donnell. Two guests were also present, Wm. A. Burgess, editor of the California Horsemen, and Dick Garofolo.

Guest speaker for the evening was Robert Van Den Berg, who spoke on the various types and breeds of horses that he had seen in Europe, Australia, and Canada.

Moving pictures were shown, after which spaghetti and coffee was served.

Special entertainment and a guest speaker were highlights of the April meeting held at Sequoia Lodge, and every member of the Leona Riders was present to enjoy them.

Don Evans, as guest speaker, used as his topic "The Horse, and Care of His Feet". Afterwards, a sound motion picture "The American Horse", put out by the University of California, was shown. Refreshments and dancing climaxed the evening's entertainment.

Martin Murray was chairman for the evening. His assistants were Deane Burton and Lee Fowler. Norma Burton was Refreshments chairman.

This month's activity will be a ride along Ocean Beach and through Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. The ride will start from Mac's Hitching Rack, and end there for breakfast. Chairman Jack Doran promises a good time for the 30 riders who will trailer their mounts across the Bay for the occasion.

AT THE NEVES STABLE

The Neves Stable has two new members, Bernice Hadley and Barbara Campbell. Bernice is a Mills College student from Merced. She has a fourteen year old gray Thoroughbred named Peter, which she has owned since he was a four year old.

Barbara owns the Thoroughbred mare Black Velvet.

Joyce Adamson's chestnut gelding celebrates his fourth birthday this month.

Richard Neves has begun work on the fine, large ring which will be lighted at night.

Florence Neves, Dick's mother, is an arduous worker, supervising the barn chores with the help of Al. The horses are treated like members of the family, and Florence considers feeding time a course affair with soup (water), meat and potatoes (hay), and dessert (oats), followed by the night-gown (blanket), and a lovely bed of straw.

WITH THE BOOTS AND JEANS

The Boots and Jeans Club held their Annual Dinner Dance at the Club Kona, March 17. There were sixty-four members present. The Entertainment Committee did a grand job of decorating the tables with floral sprays and greens. The committee's decorative plans included "orchids for the ladies" and "green carnations for the gentlemen". Leroy Lampton designed and printed the place cards.

Several specialty numbers were staged for the members of the Boots and Jeans Club, including a Rumba serpentine in which Earl Tobey, Paul Brewer, Don Roberts and Dave Bergsmann acted as partners for the beautiful chorus girls.

In addition to the Kona Club's regular entertainment, members of Boots and Jeans put on a square dance for the benefit of the other patrons of the Kona Club. Babe Lampton and Jack Doughty sang some Irish and Western Songs.

Club went to the Club Kona on March 29th for an evening of dancing, which included many square dances to the music of Don Churchill and his Western music.

The Boots and Jeans held their April party at Sequoia Lodge on the 21st. The music was by Johnnie Gregory and his Boys. Mae Dwyer, the new Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, planned a fine evening's entertainment.

Boots and Jeans riders were very happy to hear of the recent marriage of Irene Hinds and Al Figg. Irene is one of the club's charter members.

AT CRESSMOUNT

Upton Downs Riding Club will hold its Spring Show on Wednesday evening, May 12. The show will be a benefit for the Umbrella Ring's "additional roofing and improved entrances."

Bit and Spur members were sorry to have their President, Pat Lovell, resign her office due to a recent operation. Eliz Schohr, Secretary of Bit and Spur, was elected president in Pat's place.

During the Bit and Spur Horse Show held at Cressmount on April 18th, active members of Bit and Spur were presented with Bit and Spur pins by Mrs. Trefethen of Berkeley, remembered by Cressmount riders as Kathren Morgan, Bit and Spur's first president and designer of the Bit and Spur pin.

Members of Bit and Spur taking advanced jumping are: Robin Norton, Marie MacRae, Eliz Schohr, and Betty Lou Wright.

A group of riders from Cressmount gave a jumping exhibition at the Future Farmers of America Horse Show held April 10th in Centerville. Pat Brandes rode Duffle Bag, Sally Allen jumped Peter Patch, Mary Lou Hutton exhibited Rum Punch, and Sue Allen rode her Thoroughbred mare Phantom Filly.

AT THE GREEN BARN

George Daniels, riding Bronze Leaf, and Roy Fefley, riding Copper, made a nice showing with the San Francisco Sheriff's Posse in the presentation of colors and drill at the Junior Live Stock Show in the Cow Palace, March 20-25.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weaver spent Easter with their son at his ranch in the Sacramento Valley.

Edith Roberts has recovered from her illness, and is enjoying riding Tommy High on the trails again.

Work on the Green Barn will soon be completed.

AT THE AAHMES RANGERS' STABLE

The Rangers made their initial appearance of the New Year in the St. Patrick's Day Parade, held in San Francisco, Sunday, March 14. The unit consisted of twenty mounted Rangers led by Captain Fred Bemis and followed by the Wells Fargo Stage Coach, drawn by four matched Piebalds, driven by Larry Gorvad and occupied by some of the wives of the Rangers. The beautiful trophy awarded the "Best Mounted Western Group" in the Parade now occupies a cherished spot at the ranch.

The second appearance of the Rangers was on Saturday, March 20, when they participated in the ground breaking ceremonies for the new riding Arena in Joaquin Miller Park.

A very unfortunate accident happened at the Ranch recently. Kerry, a pinto gelding, owned by Francis Older, fell while in pasture, breaking his leg and necessitating his destruction.

Si and Lucille Simons are very happy over the arrival of a chestnut filly out of the Saddlebred mare, Liberty Belle. The filly will be named Belle of Destiny in honor of her dam and her sire, Destiny Bay.

The Rangers participated in the opening of the Ball Park at Emeryville, Tuesday, March 30.

Selected as the official escort for Governor Warren and party, twenty-four mounted Rangers and the stage coach drawn by four black and white pintos, and occupied by the official party, entered the field, paraded between two lines of motorcycle policemen and halted in front of the Governor's box where they remained throughout the seventeen gun salute, fireworks and National Anthem.

RANCHO BONITA RIDERS

The Rancho Bonita Riders held an Easter Egg Hunt on horseback, March 21. About 20 riders sallied forth in search of the elusive egg. Miriam Cole won first place in the Ladies' division and Art Adams and Glen Groom tied for first in the Gentlemen's division. Good looking ties were awarded as prizes.

Brunch was served to half a hundred guests on the lawn at Larry Gorvad's home at which time several new members of the club were introduced. The Rancho Bonita Riders now have 42 members, a fine showing as the club is but a month old.

A Sunday ride was held on April 11, and a 49'er Dance was given on April 24, where side burns and whiskers for the men and calico dresses for the women were the order of the night.

It is nice to see Cal and Marie Tisher around the barn again. Cal is the owner of a beautiful Palomino mare.

barbed wire on the trail recently, but fortunately no damage other than a bad scratch or two resulted.

Charlie Gray is progressing nicely after his operation, but will be confined in a cast for another two months. Ronnie Gray is doing an excellent job with his chestnut mare, Queenie—thereby hangs a tale! Ask some of the Bonita riders about it.

Jan Hansen and her son, Erick, are frequent visitors at the barn. Erick, like his father, Earl Hansen, is very enthusiastic about horses.

Evelyn Leydecker manages to get away from school on week-ends to ride with the Bonita group. Evie is enrolled at San Jose State College.

Kathryne Palmer is becoming a capable rider and is usually out bright and early on Saturdays to ride her black mare, Midnight.

WITH THE LARI-ETTES

The Lari-ettes will hold their May Day Dance at the Big Bear Tavern on Redwood Road, Wednesday, April 28. There will be many prizes.

The Lari-ettes were sporting their new shirts at the San Francisco St. Patrick's Day Parade, and came home with a trophy for first prize in Women's Western Division.

The group was present at the Ground Breaking Ceremonies for the M. H. A.'s new Arena, which will be located in Joaquin Miller Park. They also were in full force at the M. H. A. Dance which was held at the Tourist Club, Saturday Night, March 20.

Margaret Eppse's new Quarter horse mare is named Two-Bits and came from Pleasanton.

Cry-baby is the name of the buckskin mare which Margaret Rukavina just purchased from Leon Pace.

Joe Cosca is now a member of the Alameda County Sheriff's Posse. He has just bought a handsome Palomino gelding, named Nugget, from Harold Cummins.

Ollie Currie is the newest member of the Lari-ettes.

AT THE PRIVATE STABLES

Don and Margaret Phelps of Castro Valley added a new name to the list of private stables, when they christened their place THE ROCKING HORSE STABLE, on March 21. Twenty-five guests were present, as Bob Van Den Berg conducted the christening in the unique and traditional manner of his native Holland.

At present, there are three horses in the Rocking Horse Stable: Sunwin and Shasta Gold, both chestnut Thoroughbred hunters, and Rock N' Rye, a brown open jumper. Also living at the stable is Brindy, a cross-bred Cocker-Boxer pup, and Mighty Mouse, the stable cat, who is the mother of four gray kittens.

A group of ten riders from Castro Valley drove to the three-day show at Barbara Worth's last month. Janice and Mrs. Kenyon of the JTMK Stable took their beautiful Arabian stallion and also their four-year-old Thoroughbred hunter Long Timber. Gary Vanier took Lightfoot, an open jumper, and the Rocking Horse Stable entered Rock N' Rye. A blue was won in Hunter Hacks, a third in Jumper Pairs, and a fourth in Middle and Heavyweight Hunters.

Archie Brown's Canyon Ranch, an eight-acre estate in the Oakland hills, is an ideal spot for the five pleasure horses owned by the Browns. The lucky horses are: Sweetheart, a spirited black mare of Thoroughbred Saddlebred breeding; Buddy Boy, a seven-year-old bay half-Saddlebred bay gelding; Patricia, a ten-year-old Pinto mare; and Darky, a ten-year-old registered Saddlebred gelding. Opal Brown's favorite mount is Calico Babe, a nine-year-old part Saddlebred Pinto mare. The stable is guarded by Sonny, a Pomeranian, Toughie, a Maltese Terrier, and Spot, the Dalmatian.

AT THE BIG BEAR STABLES

The mystery of the Big Bear Stables is finally solved. The new building, recently completed by head carpenter Gus Fish, is to be a combination office and private tack room!

George Floyd's sorrel mare Rusty is the mother of a beautiful Thoroughbred-type colt.

Flossie Lejeal is turning her colt, Amber, over to Jimmie Black for training.

SHOW HORSE EXHIBITORS HOLD ELECTION

At a meeting of the Show Horse Exhibitor's Association, held at the El Padre Hotel in Bakersfield, April 3 and 4, the following officers were elected: Harry Slade, president; Earl Crain, vice-president; Mrs. M. J. Dees, executive secretary; Virginia Forsythe, working secretary; and Don Marquis, treasurer.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT
TED DREYER TO JIM MYERS

Copacabana Palace Hotel
Rio De Janeiro Brazil
April 4, 1948.

Dear Jim:

I have been meaning to write you to congratulate and thank you and the other members of the Board of Directors for the swell job you are doing for the Horsemen. Several people have written to me about it, and of course I am personally grateful to you for taking over while I am away.

We have been here since last Thursday, and will remain here until April 21, arriving in New Orleans on the 4th of May. Rio is certainly one beautiful city. We are in love with it. There is nothing else like it.

Of course, when I say in love with it, I mean as a tourist. There is no place like the States. Everyone seems to want to come to the states—rich and poor.

From the local papers I take it International conditions are not good. Everyone watches closely what is being done in the States. Few of us at home realize to what extent other peoples of the world are looking to the U. S. for leadership.

We flew from Montevideo to Sao Paulo, Brazil in 6 hours. It takes about 4 days by boat and 4½ by train and the trains are terrible. It was my wife's first plane trip and she enjoyed it a lot.

Give my regards to the gang and will look forward to seeing you about the 10th of May. Kindest regards and thanks again.

Ted.
